DECEMBER 30 OR THE SUNDAY BETWEEN CHRISTMAS AND EPHIPHANY: HOLY FAMILY

First and Second Vespers

Ant. 1: Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; the child in her womb is conceived by the Holy Spirit.

Ant. 2: After three days, Jesus was found in the temple, seated in the midst of the doctors, listening to them and asking them questions.

Ant. 3: Jesus returned with Mary and Joseph to Nazareth; there he lived and was obedient to them.

Ant. 4: Jesus grew in wisdom with the years and was pleasing to God and men.

Magnificat: The child Jesus remained in Jerusalem and his parents did not know it. They thought he was in the group of travelers and looked for him among their relatives and friends.

Vigils

Invitatory: Ant.: Come let us worship Christ, the Son of God, who was obedient to Joseph and Mary.

Ant. 1: When his parents brought the Child Jesus into the temple, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God.

Ant. 2: The Magi entered the house and found the child with Mary, his mother.

Ant. 3: Joseph rose in the night and took the child and his mother into Egypt.

Lauds

Ant. 1: The parents of Jesus went each year to Jerusalem for the solemn feast of Passover.

Ant. 2: The child grew in wisdom and strength, and the favor of God was upon him.

Ant. 3: His father and mother were full of wonder at what was said about their child.

Benedictus: Lord, give us light through the example of your family and guide our feet into the way of peace.

Daytime

Antiphon: My own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people.

JANUARY 1: SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE MOTHER OF GOD

Antiphons from the Blessed Virgin Mary

FROM JANUARY 2 TO EPHIPHANY

First and Second Vespers

Ant. 1: Trusting in the Lord's promise, the Virgin Mary conceived a child, and remaining a virgin she gave birth to the King of kings.

Ant. 2: Sing for joy with Jerusalem; the Lord has refreshed her like a river of peace.

Ant. 3: The Lord has made manifest his steadfast love for us.

Ant. 4: He who was from the beginning, God from God, Light from Light, is born for us.

Magnificat: By the power of the Holy Spirit the Virgin Mary has conceived a child; she carries in her womb this mystery which she cannot comprehend.

Vigils

Ant. 1: Lord God, in splendor and majesty you are clothed, wrapped in light as in a robe, alleluia.

Ant. 2: The Lord has brought forth bread from the earth, and wine to give warmth to our hearts, alleluia.

Ant. 3: The Lord looked upon all he had made and saw that it was very good, alleluia.

Lauds

Ant. 1: A light has dawned for the just man: the Savior of the world is born, alleluia.

Ant. 2: Let us sing to the Lord our God.

Ant. 3 : The people who lived in darkness have seen a great light.

Benedictus: The Virgin believed in the Lord's promise: as a virgin she gave birth to the Word made flesh, and yet she remained a virgin. Let us praise her and say: Blessed are you among women.

Daytime

Antiphon: Joseph and Mary, the mother of Jesus, were filled with wonder at all that was said of the child.

EPIPHANY

First and Second Vespers

Ant. 1: Begotten of the Father before the daystar shone or time began, the Lord our Savior has appeared on earth today.

Ant. 2: A light had shone through the darkness for the upright of heart; the Lord is gracious, merciful and just.

Ant. 3: He comes in splendor, the King who is our peace; he is supreme over all the kings of the earth.

Ant. 4: The star burned like a flame, pointing the way to God, the King of kings; the wise men saw the sign and brought their gifts in homage to their great King.

Magnificat: Seeing the star, the wise men said: This must signify the birth of some great king. Let us search for him and lay our treasures at his feet: gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Vigils

Ant. 1: From Tarshish and from the islands, kings have come to offer gifts to the Lord our King.

Ant. 2: Adore the Lord in his holy court, alleluia.

Ant. 3: Worship the Lord, all you his angels, alleluia.

Lauds

Ant. 1: The wise men opened their treasures and offered to the Lord gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, alleluia.

Ant. 2: All the people, whom you have made, will come and worship before you, O Lord.

Ant. 3: Jerusalem, your light has come; the glory of the Lord dawns upon you. Men of every race shall walk in the splendor of your sunrise, alleluia.

Benedictus: Today the Bridegroom claims his bride, the Church, since Christ has washed her sins away in Jordan's waters; the Magi hasten with their gifts to the royal wedding; and the wedding guests rejoice, for Christ has changed water into wine, alleluia.

Daytime Antiphon: Christ Jesus has come, bringing the joyful news: peace to those who were far off; peace to those who are near.

FROM EPIPHANY TO THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

First and Second Vespers

Ant. 1: Store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, says the Lord.

Ant. 2: Adoration and glory belong by right to the Lamb that was slain.

Ant. 3: The bridegroom is here; go out and welcome him.

Ant. 4: I have raised you up as a light for all the nations; through you my salvation will be proclaimed to the ends of the earth.

Magnificat: Christ, you are Light from Light; when you appeared on the earth, the wise men offered their gifts to you, alleluia.

Vigils

Ant. 1: Show me your mercy, Lord, and keep me safe, alleluia.

Ant. 2: The words of the Lord are true, like silver from the furnace.

Ant. 3: I have put all my trust in God's never-failing mercy.

Lauds

Ant. 1: When will I come to the end of my pilgrimage and enter the presence of God?

Ant. 2: Lord, show us the radiance of your mercy.

Ant. 3: The vaults of heaven ring with your praise, O Lord.

Benedictus: The wise men came from the East to adore the Lord in Bethlehem. Opening their treasures, they offered him three precious gifts: Gold for the great king, frankincense for the true God, and myrrh for his burial, alleluia.

Daytime

Antiphon: Christ Jesus has come, bringing the joyful news: peace to those who were far off; peace to those who are near.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

First and Second Vespers

Ant. 1: John was in the wilderness baptizing and proclaiming a baptism of penance for the forgiveness of sins.

Ant.2 : I baptize you with water, but the one who is coming will baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

Ant. 3: As soon as Jesus was baptized, he came out of the water, and the heavens opened before him.

Ant. 4: The Father's voice resounded from the heavens: This is my Son in whom I delight, listen to what he says to you.

Magnificat: Christ Jesus loved us, poured out his blood to wash away our sins, and made us a kingdom and priests for God our Father. To him be glory and honor for ever.

Vigils

Ant. 1: The voice of the Lord, the God of majesty, echoes over the waters.

Ant. 2: Let all the earth adore you Lord, and let it be joyful; for a new light has dawned upon the ages.

Ant. 3: Blessed be God, for he has willed that my soul should live; he has led me to a place of refuge.

Lauds

Ant.: The soldier baptizes his king, the servant his Lord, John his Savior; the waters of the Jordan tremble, a dove hovers as a sign of witness, and the voice of the Father is heard: This is my Son.

Ant.: Springs of water were made holy as Christ revealed his glory to the world. Draw water from the fountain of the Savior, for Christ our God has hallowed all creation.

Ant.: You burned away man's guilt by fire and the Holy Spirit. We give praise to you, our God and Redeemer.

Benedictus: Christ is baptized, the world is made holy; he has taken away our sins. We shall be purified by water and the Holy Spirit.

Daytime

This was John's witness: I saw the Spirit coming down from heaven like a dove and resting upon him.
